SUBJECT:

Training

1. The FE requirement in the past two weeks for expert instructors has revealed that there are very few persons left in the Agency who have a current capability in this field and these few have current assignments which presumably will suffer because of the necessity of handling your requirement. It has occurred to me that since you also have the problem of keeping some of your types usefully occupied pending a permanent re-assignment, that it might be of advantage to both the Agency and the person to have a selected few of these people undergo extensive training which would qualify them as both instructors or operators.

2. I have discussed this possibility informally with Mr. Ed. of OTR who believes that it would be fairly easy to arrange for such training at the

3. If the above idea seems to have merit to you, it is requested that you furnish this office with a list of those persons who might be available for such training.
